Another step.

Love always beckons another step. Don't we know that from family life, marriage, communities, friendship? Love may seem to have nowhere to lay its head as we move from a secure place in love to new trust, new challenges, new demands, as children grow older, a spouse gets ill.

And God may seem distant.

Love has to move on, leaving dead ways of being with someone, rising to new depths of conversation or care, as families move out to marry and raise new families, as our loved ones die or move away.

And God may seem remote.

Love looks back only in thanks.

For remembering past times only with regret is a way of living in the past, like parents trying to pretend families are not grown up, or people in mid - life hankering after youth.

Love enjoys the security and life of the present, it is willing to move and grow with each other, and it looks back only to say thanks and bring the spirit of love grown and deepened from the past into the future.

St Thomas the Apostle 3rd July

'Doubting Thomas' shares the lot of Peter the impetuous, James and John, the "sons of thunder," Philip and his foolish request to see the Father—in fact all the apostles in their flaws and lack of understanding. However we mustn't dwell too much on these facts, for Jesus chose his disciples because he could see their worth despite their weakness. We are shown that God chooses ordinary men and women just like us to do his work.
